SMS Terms of Service

By opting into SMS from a web form or other medium, you are agreeing to receive SMS messages from Generations Family Practice.

SMS Consent Communication and Data Sharing

The information we collect, obtained as part of the SMS consent process will not be shared with third parties for marketing purposes.

Information We Collect

We collect information from you when you visit our site, register on our site, make an appointment, or interact with us in other ways. This information may include

- Personal identification information (name, email address, phone number, etc.)
- Health-related information
- Payment information

How We Use Your Information

We may use the information we collect to provide, manage and improve our services, to process your transactions, communicate with you regarding your appointments and inquiries, to send periodic emails with updates, promotions and also to improve our customer services.

Types of SMS Communications

If you have consented to receive text messages from Generations Family Practice, you may receive messages related to the following:

- Appointment reminders
- Follow-up messages
- Billing inquiries
- Promotions or offers (if applicable)

Example:

Hello, this is a friendly reminder of your upcoming appointment with Dr. Mauceri at 1021 Darrington Drive on [Date] at [Time]. Reply STOP to opt out of SMS messaging at any time.

Message Frequency:

Message frequency may vary depending on the type of communication. For example, you may typically receive up to three (3) SMS messages per week related to your appointments/billing, etc.

Potential Fees for SMS Messaging:

Standard message and data rates may apply, depending on your carrier's pricing plan. These fees may vary if the message is sent domestically or internationally.
